

YOU ARE INVITED TO JOIN THE MAGIC VALLEY DUCKTAILS

The Magic Valley Ducktails is a youth fly fishing club for young men & women from 6 to 16 years of age. The club is dedicated to the education, conservation and tradition of fly fishing.

Champions of: Catch & release fishing, barbless hooks and the protection of wild fish stocks. Dedicated to the concept that the more we know about the environment where trout are found the more enjoyment we will receive from the sport.

Monthly meetings held at 10 am to 11:30 on the second Saturday of each month at the College of Southern Idaho fish hatchery. The CSI hatchery is located on Rock Creek – take Blue Lakes Blvd South to Canyon Street then to the hatchery.

MEETINGS include education on fly fishing, fly tying, rod building, entomology, angling art & writing, fishing knots, fly fishing tactics and many other nature related subjects.

Magic Valley Ducktails have fishing parties, picnics, stream walks, conservation projects and various fund raising activities.

Annual dues are $20 for a family membership
